

Writing Criteria for the FANJournal

FANJournal is inviting writings to submit a one article which covers topic area within the journal. The article can cover any area:

Food safety, Aged Care, Childhood nutrition, Foodservices, General nutrition, Something to think about, Management in foodservices/catering, general food article. To view an example of the FANJournal please www.nutcat.com.au journal section.

The article should be sent to the journal via fanjournal@bigpond.com or use the enquiry site on the web page. Please insert in the subject line –ARTICLE FANJOURNAL

The selection criteria will be based on the journal topics for each edition. Authors Submitted will be email of confirmation of publication and asked to submit an invoice for payment. The editor can be contacted prior to each edition for journal themes to assist with the formation of an article either email or (0417 608 206).

Articles not suitable for the FANJournal will be returned to the author.

Editing process – will involve the article being proofed read however, articles will not be rewritten or worked on by journal staff. Articles that require considerable editing will be returned to the author for adjustment.

All authors must have an ABN number and able to generate an invoice for payment.

1 page article is $55.00 including GST.

Once an article has been accepted it is the author's responsibility to generate an invoice and send it to the journal for payment.

Length of article

1 A4 page approximate 400-600 words

Picture and diagrams

Pictures and diagrams make an article come alive and are encouraged when submitting an article.

A good photo (quality for printing) should be 1-2MB in size and taken by digital camera. Please send photo/diagram with article.

Writing deadlines for the FANJournal

Edition	Articles deadline (nearest working day)
March	1st February
June	1st May
September	1st August
December	1st November